- more emphasis on side navigation bar
 - increasing size, spacing
- working on changing header font
- adding in shapes that are in tune with the book covers
 - for visual emphasis and appeal
- indication that the publication dropdowns can be clicked
- pull quotes
 - taking out important quotes or facts and making them more emphasized so that the audience can know more about him and to break up the 'wall of text'.
- increasing the size of some of the hero images
- working on the functionality of the side navigation to scroll down to the correct areas of the page
